The Eau de Vie at Le Petit Village in New York City is a sophisticated upgrade on the classic French 75. It's made with Grey Goose La Poire, Italicus liqueur (Italian bergamot), vanilla syrup, and fresh lemon, before finally being topped with Champagne and finished with a rim of white chocolate and truffle. "Eau de Vie is where elegance meets originality. An exquisite fusion of flavors that enhances your senses," said Le Petit Village's Beverage Program Consultant, Jeremy Le Blanche of Fantom Creative Hospitality.
